

VERMONT HIGHER EDUCATION COLLABORATIVE

The Vermont Higher Education Collaborative (VT-HEC) Presents...

Four Opportunities to Work with National Experts in Equity, Anxiety, Student-Centered Learning, and Special Education Law

Lynn Lyons, LICSW, is an author, therapist and expert on anxiety in kids & families. Anxiety is now the foremost reason that parents seek help from a mental health provider and is a top predictor of developing depression in adolescence or early adulthood. Lynn will present:
Interrupting the Worry Cycle: Advanced Strategies for Managing Anxious Students (& Parents)!
October 10 & 11: Stoweflake Resort, Stowe, VT

Carol Tomlinson, Ed.D, & Bill Rich, MA. Carol literally wrote the books on differentiation, including her latest, The Differentiated Classroom: Responding to the Needs of All Learners. Carol will team up with Bill Rich, Vermont's own expert on learning and the brain, as well as proficiency-based learning, to present:

Strategies for Sustaining the Student-Centered Classroom
October 18: Capitol Plaza, Montpelier, VT

Art Cernosia, Esq, is a national expert on special education law & regulations. Art will be returning to Vermont for this annual VT-HEC workshop:

Special Education Legal Update
October 25: Capitol Plaza, Montpelier, VT

Paul Gorski, Ph.D, is a writer, professor, and founder of EdChange, a team of passionate, experienced educators dedicated to educational equity and justice. VT-HEC is working with the Vermont Principals' Association (VPA) and other Vermont organizations to present an array of events and learning opportunities focusing on equity. The VT-HEC Mission Investment Fund is sponsoring this 2-day presentation, which will be followed by three spring days focused on gender, race and poverty.

The Equity Literacy Approach: Becoming a Threat to Inequity in Classrooms and Schools
November 1 and 2: Capitol Plaza, Montpelier, VT

The VT-HEC is one of Vermont's largest statewide providers of professional development focused on the education, health and well-being of children and youth.

Registration for all fall workshops and courses is open!

Use our website (vthec.org) for registration, and Facebook and Twitter for additional news, resources, articles, etc.