

• Special Education Legal Update •

Presenter: Art Cernosia, Esq.

Target Audience: Special education and related service providers, special education administrators, building administrators, parents/advocates and attorneys.

This workshop will provide a review and analysis of recent legal developments in special education law, both nationally and in Vermont. New judicial decisions will be covered, along with policy and practice implications for Vermont educators.

Topics to be covered include:

- MTSS and Child Find
- Evaluations and Independent Educational Evaluations
- Eligibility Determinations
- IEP Development and Implementation
- FAPE
- Least Restrictive Environment/Placement
- Behavior and Discipline
- Professional Liability Issues
- Section 504/ADA Issues

This offering has been approved for 6 hours of general continuing legal education credits through the VT Office of Attorney Licensing.

Art Cernosia is an attorney and an education consultant from Williston, Vermont. He provides training, consultation and other technical assistance services to state and local education agencies and advocacy organizations throughout the nation pertaining to special education legal issues. For 30 years he taught and provided legal workshops at the University of Vermont's Education Law Institute. He also volunteered as a surrogate parent for students with disabilities who were placed in juvenile detention facilities.

Dates: November 8, 2019
Place: Capitol Plaza ~ Montpelier, VT
Cost: $215 (lunch included)
Time: 8:30-3:30

Register Here

Please inquire with the Capitol Plaza reservations
(802-223-5252) about discounted hotel rates.

Use vthec.org for registration, and Facebook and Twitter for additional news, resources, articles, etc.