Course Description:

In this hands on, 3-credit course (offered both as undergraduate and graduate levels through Northern Vermont University) participants will use and apply learning in their own child care programs. Each learner will develop a business plan, network with other directors, gather resources, examine business strategies, and develop techniques to improve business performance. This course has been approved as fulfilling section 7.3.1.5 of the child care regulations:

The program director of a CBCCP licensed for 13 or more children shall complete within one year of employment start date a three-credit course in managing an early care and education program that includes budgeting and financial management, approved by the Division; or the licensee shall employ a business manager as in the rule 7.6.1 of these regulations.

For the completed course credits to count as “related credits” for the purposes of BFIS and Northern Lights, as well as meet 7.3.1.5, the course must be completed with a grade of a C- or better.

Course Instructor: Heather Duhamel, MEDL

Course Assistant: Tanya LaChapelle

Becca Schrader is the Business Resource Manager at the Vermont Community Loan Fund, providing one-on-one, group, and systems level support and expertise to borrowers and stakeholders in lending focus areas, including the early care and learning industry.

Elena Gustavson is the Business Advisory Specialist for the Vermont Community Loan Fund, providing one-on-one support to VCLF borrowers. Prior to joining VCLF, Elena worked for more than 15 years in both entrepreneurial, food and nonprofit organizations.

Shane W. McCormack, Esq., practices law with the Business + Transactions, Taxation and Commercial Finance teams at Paul Frank + Collins in Burlington, VT. His practice includes the representation of entrepreneurs and start-ups; he assists clients with business formation, the drafting of operating agreements, limited partnership agreements, shareholders agreements, securities purchase agreements, and registration rights agreements.

Kerin Stackpole, Esq., leads the Employment + Labor Law Group at Paul Frank & Collins in Burlington, VT, where she provides practical and proactive advice to senior leaders and management teams regarding a wide range of labor and employment issues. In addition, Kerin regularly designs and presents training programs for organizations seeking to strengthen the skills of their management team.

Heather Duhamel brings passion, expertise and professional experience to Child Care Administration. She earned a Master in Educational Leadership from UVM and served as an administrator of 5 STARS, NAEYC accredited Early Education Programs in Vermont. Heather is currently a consultant for Let's Grow Kids with a specialty in Alternative Pathways to Licensure. Heather has facilitated many courses for the Vermont College Network.

Tanya LaChapelle has a twenty-year history in Early Childhood Education. She ran a successful early childhood program for nine years before shifting her focus to supporting the field at large. Tanya currently works as a Community and Program Support Specialist for Let's Grow Kids, where she provides technical assistance, supports quality practices and expansion, and serves on committees to strengthen the workforce.

A grant from Let's Grow Kids supported the development and delivery of this course enabling VT-HEC to offer it at a reduced cost.
