

The 2023 Patty Morgan Scholarship

The Patty Morgan Scholarship is awarded annually to an educator seeking to obtain an initial early childhood educator (ECE) or early childhood special educator (ECSE) license or seeking to add the ECE or ECSE endorsement. The Patty Morgan Scholarship will cover the selected candidate's VT-HEC tuition costs not covered by other funding sources throughout the candidate's program.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. To be eligible for the Patty Morgan Scholarship, you must be currently working at least 20 hours per week in an early childhood setting defined as serving "Infants through Grade 3."
2. You must first apply for funds from your employer and any other scholarships you are eligible for (VSAC, T.E.A.C.H.) and still not have resources that are sufficient to cover tuition and other VT-HEC costs.
3. The Patty Morgan Scholarship will be awarded to an applicant who, in the opinion of the selection committee, convincingly demonstrates and documents:
 - ❖ A dedication to the success and well-being of young children of Vermont.
 - ❖ The potential to successfully complete the program and become a superior professional in the early childhood field.

Conditions of the Patty Morgan Scholarship:

To continue as a Patty Morgan Scholar, the educator must:

- ❖ Enroll and commit to satisfactorily completing all courses, any required educator testing, seminars, and/or practicum experiences included in her or his Personalized Program Plan within the time specified.
- ❖ Maintain a minimum of a B in all courses.
- ❖ Comply with all program requirements as outlined in the VT-HEC EC/ECSE Initial Licensure Candidate Handbook or the VT-HEC EC/ECSE Endorsement Candidate Handbook.
- ❖ Commit to teaching as an ECE or ECSE educator for at least two years after completing the licensure program.

Applications for the Patty Morgan Scholarship are welcome from educators seeking an initial ECE or ECSE license and from those seeking to add an ECE or ECSE endorsement to their current Vermont license.
